

Government of the Union of the Republic of Myanmar

Ministry of Planning and Finance

Customs Department

Notification

Yangon, 4th Waxing of Kason, 1383 Myanmar Era

(7 May, 2019)

No. Under Section 24 of the Sea Customs Act, Director General of Myanmar Customs Department prescribes the following articles which are not subject to Customs Duties and Taxes;

(a) Bona fide baggage

- (i) One portable camera and its accessories (excluding professional ones)
- (ii) One set of Golf Clubs
- (iii) One bicycle
- (iv) Medicines prescribed by a doctor for passenger use during his trip
- (v) Any kind of Liquor not exceeding 2 liters
- (vi) Any Perfume not exceeding 150 mls
- (vii) Cigarettes not exceeding 400 in number, cigars not exceeding 50 in number, tobacco for pipe not exceeding 250 gm in weight
- (viii) One portable video camera or HD Cam or DV Cam and its spare battery
- (ix) One portable PC and its accessories
- (x) Other personal effects and articles for household use not exceeding USD 500 in value
- (xi) A Television (42")
- (xii) Jewellery which accompanies a passenger when he left Myanmar by the approval of Myanmar Central Bank

- (b) Other articles than the personal effects prescribed in paragraph (a) which are not against the current laws and regulations, not exceeding USD 500 in Value and proved to the satisfaction of DG or his delegated Customs officer that those are personal effects of passenger, can be exempt from Customs duties and taxes.
- (c) Tools and equipments carried by a foreigner in relation with the investment or company or governmental organization can be exempt from Customs duties and taxes if the passenger undertakes to bring back on leaving Myanmar.
- (d) The personal effects of a deceased person will be exempt from payment of duties and taxes, if he were alive, if those are reimported.

The notification issued with Letter No. 57-A-2007 dated 10-8-2012 by the Customs Department is hereby repealed with this Notification.

Kyaw Htin
Director General